

arplay medical

Casting frame

- The casting frame allows the compression of a polystyrene block while casting the low temperature alloy. It includes a box made from an Aluminium Alloy which would contain the block plus a lid that is adjustable in height meant to compress it. The manipulator simply slips the polystyrene block into the box, squeeze the lid against the blocks and lock the 4 fastening screws.

réf. : AR4
casting frame